

Product Donation Guidelines

We donate our fresh handmade products for direct use, volunteer appreciation, emergency relief, event attendees and speakers, public outreach and fundraising activities.*

Lush does not donate to groups or events that:

- Promote or support violence, aggression, prejudice or oppression towards others
- Deny the human rights of others
- Are involved in cruelty, or subjugation of animals, including testing on animals for research, or using animals for human gain including the use of animals in entertainment.
- Are sponsoring walks/runs for medically related causes, which are often linked to animal testing and medical research
- Force or coerce others to change their religious or spiritual beliefs
- Are political parties, rallies, or otherwise partisan events
- Are not making the effort to be environmentally responsible
- Are individuals, including student projects, scholarships, or individual awards

* We prioritize our Lush Charitable Giving grant recipients for fundraising activity requests for silent auction gifts and raffle items. Non-grant recipients may be accommodated if product is available.
